CarePeople Home Health, Inc's mission is to become a recognized leader in its targeted market, Asian Community for in- home care services and strives to offer and deliver services to the ethnically diverse Community in Virginia and Maryland state as well as seniors and others of any race or background.

CarePeople Home Health, Inc has been gaining good reputation as an Asian Home Care company that most Asian can look for. It is because our multilingual Nursing staffs can approach Asian community without language barrier in introducing home care services. Therefore CarePeople Home Health Nursing staffs could provide culturally sensitive nursing services in client's home with more understanding family dynamics and clear instruction regarding care management.

CHAP is an independent, not-for-profit, accrediting body for community-based health care organizations. Created in 1965, CHAP was the first to recognize the need and value for accreditation in community-based care. CHAP is the oldest national, community-based accrediting body with more than 5,000 agencies currently accredited nationwide. Through “deeming authority” granted by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS), CHAP has the regulatory authority to survey agencies providing home health, hospice, and home medical equipment services, to determine if they meet the Medicare Conditions of Participation and CMS Quality Standards. CHAP's purpose is to define and advance the highest standards of community-based care.
